Important message to all Rowers & Parents:

With the estimated cost of regattas and training camps for rowers for the season being $2,031.50 the committee is suggesting that you consider making automatic payments to the club account. This will spread the load for rowers and parents and will assist the club with planning and paying for these events.

The following are some examples of automatic payments you may want to consider between now and February 2009 to pay the estimated costs of $2,031.50:

- 5 x monthly payments of $406.30
- 10 X fortnightly payments of $203.15
- 20 x weekly payments $101.58
